

J. Josephson Philosophy

Our commitment to the customer is top priority, offering efficient and timely customer services, support, and product.

J. Josephson is a Global Company, marketing contract wallcovering around the world. We evoke “feel good” working and living environments, internationally and domestically.

Our Environmental responsibility and compliance meets and exceeds the strictest standards including all: Federal EPA requirements, the state of New Jersey Regulatory requirements, OSHA regulations, and the Clean Air & Water Acts.

We aspire to be innovative and vigilant in our pursuit of new and unique technologies and to constantly evaluate our processes in order to lead the industry with quality products.

We are a value-added company. We strive to be one of the most efficient producers in each of our product categories. Our goal is to be responsive to the color and design trends that emerge from our market research, providing quality and design value.
